RABBI ORRIN KRUBLIT

Rabbi Ian S. Jacknis, Rabbi Emeritus

Effective Wednesday, March 2, 2022, masks are optional and individuals are permitted to decide whether or not they wear a mask within our facilities. We encourage and support anyone who chooses to wear a mask and welcome those who decide not to. As data suggests and in accordance with the CDC, NYS and local area guidance, we have decided to adjust our policy. We expect all to respect and be kind to those whose decisions differ.

Our vaccine policy remains in effect at this time. (All eligible persons should be up to date in their vaccination series, including boosters).

We have weathered this pandemic as a community and look to take additional steps, together, one at a time. This policy is subject to change without notice, as determined by the Rabbi, president and/or the board of Melville JC, to be necessary or appropriate to protect the congregation in accordance with Jewish law and public health directives.

Please visit melvillejc.org for updates and feel free to contact us directly (president@melvillejc.org) with any questions.
